From Me To Three- Sermon Transcript 11/15/2026

Good to see everybody. Yay, God. What a beautiful morning. Thank you all. Wow. All right. I'm just going to pray over the word, OK? So Father God, we are in awe of you. We love you. We know you're here with us. And I ask Holy Spirit that you would anoint these words that you gave me and that you would speak directly to every heart listening that we are receiving and that we understand and we receive your blessing. Amen. Amen. Every good and perfect gift comes from God, right? And there's no word that He releases that's going to fall to the ground. And so as Christians, we want to lay hold of the word that He's speaking to us.

That means personally, it means corporately, it means individually, it means as you're reading the word, the Bible, that we lay hold of the words that He's speaking. When your heart jumps and leaps, when your heart receives, you know when the Father's speaking to you through the word of God and how He's speaking to you in your own ear, in your own heart. And we're honoring every word that proceeds from His mouth. Amen. So I love Him. He's awesome. He's glorious. So stay with me here. So there's two big words that He said with this. So it's going to start with the phrase He gave me, from me to three.

From me to three, okay? The Father, the Son, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit. We are no longer our own. We belong to the Godhead. From me to three. From self to the Godhead. This week in the Garden family, I sent an e-mail of a hymn that has been sung for quite a while proclaiming praise to the Godhead. And it was very clear on November 11th to send that out. Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Praise Him, all creatures here below. Praise Him above, ye heavenly hosts. Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen. From self to the Godhead. From me to three. Okay? The Father, Son, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. You know, we can get these and we can say them and we confess them, but this is a living, breathing Word of God reality of praise from the Holy Ghost to the Godhead. Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Amen. Praise Him, all creatures here below. Praise Him above, ye heavenly hosts. Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Matthew 28:19. In speaking of the Godhead, these were words from Jesus. Matthew 28:19. This is a commission to His church. Say, from me. From me. To three. 19, He says, So go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus makes it very clear that we are not being sent out alone. He sends us out as disciples into the nations to people to bring the great gospel of the kingdom that He has given to us to proclaim His name and baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. He is very clear on His mission and who He is with, Father, Son, Jesus Christ, and Holy Ghost, Godhead, God, all God, amen. And that we go in His name in the Father's name, in Christ's name, and in the Holy Ghost's name. And we go out in power because without that we are nothing.

Look at 1 Corinthians 8:6. I'm going to read this out of the New Living. From me to three, from self to the Godhead. We are no longer our own. We belong to the Godhead. What comfort? What strength? 6, it says, But for us, there is one God, the Father, by whom all things were created and for whom we live. And there is one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things were created and through whom we live. Amen. These are not shallow words. This is revelation of the Lord's commission that I just read to go unto all the nations, make disciples in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

Yes? One God, one Father, one Lord, one Savior, in whom we are all created and all things have been created, and we've been commissioned to creation to proclaim who He is so that peoples can come home into the family of God. Go to John 1. I'm going to read verses 1–3. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. And He was in the beginning with God, and all things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. And speaking of Jesus Christ, the Word of God, amen. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

You hear the undergirding of this foundational truth that we believe as Christians. Glory to God. All things were made through Him. Without Him, nothing was made that was made. These are very, very important. Now go to Psalm 9:10. From me to three, from self to the Godhead. Glory to your name. 10, it says, And those who know your name will put their trust in you. For you, Lord, have not forsaken those who seek you. For those who know your name, not just about your name, right, but know. We are convinced and we know in whom we believe. Yes, as believers, we don't just have heard about it, but when you are a believer, you have believed and received in your heart that Jesus Christ is Lord, yes, and that He died on the cross for our sins to be saved.

Hallelujah. Those who know your name will put their trust in you. That's powerful. For you, Lord, have not forsaken those who seek you. Scripture says He will never fail you, leave you, forsake you. That's powerful. Now the Holy Ghost spoke these words from me to three, from self to the Godhead, and then He said this, formidable trust. Formidable trust. Strong trust, deep trust, unshakable trust. So let's look at the word formidable. formidable trust, strong feelings of awe or admiration because of grandeur, strength, awesome strength, forceful, powerful, inspiring awe, admiration, wonder, difficult to undertake, surmount, to defeat and overcome, commanding respect, extremely impressive in strength or excellence, formidable trust, strong feelings of awe, admiration because of the grandeur, the strength, awesome strength, forceful, powerful.

All these words become before the word trust. OK? Inspiring awe, admiration, wonder, difficult to undertake, surmount, defeat, or overcome, commanding respect, extremely impressive in strength or excellence. Amen. Now, trust, reliance on the integrity, strength, ability, surety of a person or thing. Confidence, expectation of something, even hope. Trust, reliance on the integrity, the strength and the ability, surety of a person or a thing. I trust you, yes. And formidable trust, wow, here we go. Expounding more refers to a type of trust that is so powerful, impressive, or difficult to undermine. It suggests that a deep level of confidence in someone or something that inspires a sense of security and reliability.

Characteristics may be strength. This trust is robust and resilient, able to withstand challenges or doubts. Impressiveness. It evokes a sense of awe or respect due to its depth and reliability. Difficult to shake. One established, formidable trust is hard to break, indicating a strong bond or belief in the integrity of the other party. From me to three, we are no longer our own, we belong to the Godhead. From self to the Godhead, honoring the Godhead. Praise God, praise God, praise Father, praise Jesus, praise the Holy Ghost. He strengthens our heart for Him, our trust in Him, His name, who He is. He is the Word. All things are created for Him and through Him.

And we have chosen to know His name because we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ. We have chosen to put our trust in Him. So the Holy Ghost is strengthening our trust, our resolve. He's strengthening our understanding of our God. Strong trust, deep trust, unshakable trust. Everybody understands what it's like when you have to trust. And you know what it feels like when you don't trust. We all do. We know when you can trust some, but not all the way. So even on our money, in God we trust. God always wants to strengthen the believer in Him. I will do it from every area that I can, every way that I can.

Because everything in the believer is not in where you live or what you do, but who you know and who you're in. Right? Without Him, we are nothing. We must be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might always. You are strengthened in the Word of God always. We are strong in Him always. He never faints. He doesn't grow weary. He is always the same yesterday, today, and forever. We are being established in the Lord our God, the Godhead. Wow. And you have to feel that versus just being the church doctrine. It's about relationship. It's about authentic communication, dependence, yes, and trust.

Trust, trust, formidable trust, strong feelings. Oh, you hear these words, admiration, All this because we trust God, we trust Jesus, we trust the Holy Ghost, yes? Awesome strength, forceful, powerful. Do you see weakness here? I do not. Do you see flesh here? I do not. I see the flesh being transformed, lining up with what the kingdom of heaven is saying. And Jesus Christ fully displayed this when He walked on the earth and now forever and ever, amen. Wow. Difficult to defeat or overcome, right? Commanding respect, you hear that? Authority. Extremely impressive in strength or excellence. Reliance on integrity, strength, ability. No one wants to be lied to.

I hate lies, yes? We hate the father of lies, Satan the devil. He's the father of lies, Jesus said. We love the Spirit of truth. So the Holy Ghost is building up His body to come into that trust. to strengthen us all the more in who we believe, what we believe, and why we believe it. And there is your witness everywhere you go. And oh, in the spirit realm, it is seeing, believe me. Trust, confidence, expectation of something, and hope. Robust trust, strength, resilient, withstanding challenges or doubts. Wow, awe, wonder, respect, the depth of this. Difficult to shake. And once you're established, once you know something, you are unmovable.

I cannot talk you out of your salvation. Cannot. Cannot. Won't work. We know in whom we believe, yes? We are established. Formidable trust, a strong bond of belief and integrity. Hallelujah. God loves the power of agreement. So when He brings His words, He wants us to agree with Him. private, corporate. He wants us to believe what He's written. When we read the scripture, He wants us to believe in our heart, confess it with our mouth, speak the word, declare the word, pray the word, sing the word, yes, but believe it. And when He speaks to you prophetically or by the Spirit, just flat out from me to three.

Listen. Listen to what He has to say to you. Amen? God loves the power of agreement. We know in Amos 3:3, it says, Can two walk together unless they agree? In the New Living, it says, Can two people walk together without agreeing on the direction you're going? Jesus said, Follow me so I know where He's going. Follow me. I know His direction. He's given us His Word. He's given us His power. He's given us His Holy Spirit who will not lead us astray. that lead us into all truth. So God loves the power of this agreement. When He says, from me to three, strengthening our faith in the Godhead, we are not our own.

We are in the Godhead. He is for us, not against us. Wow. It's not just a foundation. This is who He is, the Father, Son, and the Great Holy Ghost. And He has laid that foundation upon Himself for the saints to walk on and receive the truth. How much of God do you want to know? How much of Jesus do you want to know? How much of the Holy Ghost do you really want? The door is open, right? He does not put a limit on us. Hallelujah. Two or three in agreement. So Jesus is in agreement with the Father and the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost is in agreement with Jesus and the Father.

All are in perfect agreement. Truth. Two or three in agreement. Okay, go to Matthew 18. Thank you, Lord. Wow, formidable trust. Matthew 18:18–20, I'm reading that out of Amplified Classic. Truly, I tell you, whatever you forbid and declare to be improper and unlawful on earth must be what is already forbidden in heaven. And whatever you permit, and declare proper and lawful on earth must be what is already permitted in heaven. How can two walk together unless they're in agreement? Verse 19, again I'll tell you, if two of you on earth agree, that's what we just read, can two walk together unless they agree?

What direction? Where are we going here, right? If 2 on you on earth agree, harmonize together, making a symphony together about whatever. Anything and everything they may ask, it will come to pass and be done for them by my Father in heaven. For wherever two or three are gathered, drawn together as my followers in into my name, there I am in their midst. From me to three. He's asking of our agreement always with His word. And the word of God has already been revealed and we read the word, we are receiving wisdom and revelation from heaven. Yes? And when He speaks the word and He prophetically speaks to us, we are receiving what He is saying by faith.

Again, I read this. 18, Jesus said, truly I tell you, whatever you forbid. Now, you know what that means? I forbid that in my house. I forbid this. You know what this means? That's, whoa, that's a strong word. Okay? Whatever you forbid and declare, here's your voice, to be improper and unlawful on earth. Where? On earth. Say my territory. All right. Must be what is already forbidden in heaven. And whatever you permit and declare proper and lawful on earth must be what is already permitted in heaven. What authority, what revelation that Jesus is giving the saints who follow Him. 19, He said, again I tell you, if two of you on earth agree, harmonize together, make a symphony together, powerful, about whatever, that's a big word, anything and everything they may ask, ask, hear it, ask.

Ask and it should be given to you. Seek and you shall find. Knock and the door will be opened. Jesus taught us this all through the gospel because He knows that the Father's going to put in our heart what He desires and form a formidable trust that cannot be shaken. Whatever you may ask, it will come to pass. Now, I like to use this verse, it shall come to pass. Covenant word, it shall come to pass. It shall come to pass. Period. End of discussion. God will make sure. God will make sure it shall come to pass. And it will come to pass and be done for them by my Father in heaven.

For wherever two or three are gathered in my name, drawn together as my fathers into my name, I am, I am, I am, I am, I am. I'm there in their midst. The Lord Jesus told us that He and the Father are one, correct? You can see this in John 17. I'm not going to read it. He told us that He and His Father are one. He understood the Godhead. He always does the things that please the Father. Jesus always does the things that please the Father. He always has. He always will. He prayed until the end, Father, not my will, but your will be done.

Correct? What formidable trust. What incredible trust. Wow. He wants the saints to have this. He wants us to have this. He wants us to know this. From me to three, it's not just self anymore. It's not just about you. He's bringing us into this family, into this covenant, into this dominion. 7. He strengthens us. Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Praise Him all creatures here below. Praise Him above ye heavenly hosts, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Wow, yes, I can expect growth. 1 John 5:7, again, For there are three that bear witness in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost. And these three are one.

There are three that bear witness in heaven, the Father, the Word, which is Jesus Christ, the Word of God, which I already read you, Those, wow, and the Holy Ghost, and these are one. That's who we serve. We are the body of Christ. This is our God, beloved. This is His testimony. This is reality. And the saints who wrote the scripture, they are bearing witness to the Word of God, to us. Yes? We were not, quote, there with Jesus walking with Him, but through their Word, we believe. Through the Holy Ghost, we believe. But they had to also form a formidable trust. They had to trust and believe that He was the Son of God.

Truth? And the great Holy Ghost imparted repentance and revelation knowledge of this to them. What a journey. Go to Nahum, Old Testament. Nahum 1:7. You are strong, Lord. The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble. He knows those who trust in Him. The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble. And He knows those. He knows those. You got to get this. He knows those who trust Him. Knows. Big word, knows. My God knows me, and I know Him. That, right? And we know Him through the word and by the Spirit. The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble.

Always a stronghold, a strong fortress, yes, always, every day for us. He knows those who are trusting in Him, and yet He says, formidable trust. Strengthen. from me to three, from self to the Godhead. Look up and honor the Godhead and receive fresh revelation of the covenant and the unity of the spirit and the bond of peace and the partation He's giving to His body right now. Our faith comes from God and He's good. Not ourselves, not our resources, not our strength, not our might, not our abilities. Heaven comes to earth always by faith, and He is not a man that He would lie. Go to Numbers 23:19.

So when you go into all the world and minister to the people that the Lord gives you, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, you're going to be more strengthened than ever. Amen. 19, very, very clear, God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should even repent. Has He said it? Will He not do it? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good? Glory to God. God is not a human, okay, that He should lie. nor a son of man that He should repent. As He has said, will He not do it?

So when you lay hold of the Word of God, it does not matter what comes against that. That is the truth. And the truth that you know will set you free. So when we have formidable trust, it is growing strength and getting deeper and deeper and deeper. And that my trust is in the Lord. Amen. God acts upon His Word. Now, many testimonies came to my mind, but the Holy Spirit told me to speak on this one of Peter. So we're going to read this. If you could go to Matthew 26, we're going to start reading on verses 31–35. Jesus told Peter that he would deny Him three times, right?

And then later, after repentance and the resurrection of Jesus, He came to the same man And according to His words, He restored Peter according to His word and promise. Formidable trust. So we're going to read these scriptures, this testimony. Matthew 26, starting in verse 31. My subtitle says, Jesus predicts Peter's denial. Then Jesus said to them, all of you will be made to stumble because of me this night, for it is written. It is written. I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered. Pause there. I'm going to read Zechariah 13:7. Note it, this is the prophecy that He is proclaiming.

7 says, Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is my companion, says the Lord of hosts. Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered. And then I will turn my hand against the little ones. Jesus is speaking prophetically and He is acting and He's following every word that God has proclaimed about Him. Jesus said to them, All of you will be made to stumble because of me this night. For it is written, yes, I will strike the shepherd, which was Him, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered. We continue, verse 32, But after I had been raised, hallelujah, I will go before you to Galilee.'

33. Peter answered and said to Him, 'Even if all are made to stumble because of you, I will never be made to stumble.' And Jesus said to him, 'Assuredly I say to you, that this night before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times.' 35. And Peter said to Him, 'Even if I have to die with you, I will not deny you.' And so said all of the disciples. Now go to Mark chapter 14. We're going to start on 66. Mark 14:66–72. My subtitle said, Peter Denies Jesus and Weeps. 66, now as Peter was below in the courtyard, One of the servant girls of the high priest came, and when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, You also were with Jesus of Nazareth.

68, But he denied it, saying, I neither know or understand what you're saying. And then he went out of the porch and a rooster crowed. 69, And the servant girl saw him again, and began to say to those who stood by, This is one of them. 70, but he denied it again. And a little later, those who stood by said to Peter again, surely you're one of them, for you are Galilean and your speech shows it. And in 71, then he began to curse and swear, I do not know this man of whom you speak. 72, a second time the rooster crowed. And then Peter called to mind the word that Jesus had said to him.

Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times. And he went, and when he thought about it, he wept. Go to John 21. We'll start on verse 15. He's creating formidable trust. My subtitle says, Jesus restores Peter. John 21:15. So this is after His resurrection. So when they had eaten together, Jesus said to Simon Peter, whoa. Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these? He said to him, oh yes, Lord, you know that I love you. So He said to them, feed my lambs. And in 16, He said to him again a second time, Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?

I said to Him, yes, Lord, you know that I love you. He said to him, tend my sheep. 17, whoa. And He said to him the third time, Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me? Peter was so grieved because He said to him the third time, do you love me? And he said to Him, Lord, you know all things. You know that I love you. And Jesus says, so feed my sheep. Most assuredly I say to you, when you were younger, you girded yourself and walked where you wished. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish.

Verse 19, this He spoke, signifying what death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He said to him, Follow me. Wow. What a glorious testimony and faithfulness of Jesus Christ. Formidable trust in the very word of God that He has fulfilled and that He spoke and that He knew was forming in His disciples. And even though He had to follow through with the Father's perfect will, yes, And He tried to tell His saints, He tried to tell them, but yet they were human and could not yet see the fullness. And they acted as we might have done the exact same. Yes? And yet here He is, fulfilling everything perfectly, developing this vulnerable trust to the man that was going to step out and lead the church.

Yes? With the word. and the presence and the power and the glory of the unshakable Godhead. Yes, that He would be launched on the rock. You hear it? How can we believe what He says? When we are reading, when we hear Him, how can we believe what He says? What shall He fulfill in us according to His words, destiny and plans for us individually and corporately from one generation to the next. How shall He fulfill in us? We are part of that fulfillment. Until the end, right? Until the end. We are part of this. It's a glorious plan. Amen. How can we believe what He says?

Why? How? How can we believe this? Why would we believe that God would form this trust in us? that He labors at every turn to be strengthened in Him and the strength of His might, to lay hold of all of Him, yes, even in difficulty and persecution. You lay hold of who has been laid hold up for you, yes. He strengthens this trust. He's faithful. If your trust is in anything or anyone else, it will fail. It will fail us, yes. Our trust is in you. Forefathers put in God we trust on our dollar bill. Great. But there is a word that holds fast over a nation.

In God we trust. You hear it? However generation and generation and generation shall receive it, repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Truth, right? What shall He fulfill in us according to His words and destined plans that He has for us individually and corporately from one generation to the next? From me to three? Trust in the Godhead. Trust in every word that proceeds from His mouth. We are not alone. God is faithful. Let's go to Psalm 89. Wow. 33-34, it says, Nevertheless, my lovingkindness I will not utterly take from him, nor allow my faithfulness to fail. My covenant I will not break, nor alter the word that goes out of my lips.

Say, Covenant-keeping God. Covenant-keeping God. and formidable trust, formidable trust in a covenant-keeping God. He has given us His word, yes? Nevertheless, my loving kindness, in my loving kindness, I will not utterly take from him nor allow my faithfulness to fail. Jesus would not allow His faithfulness to fail. He believed God to the uttermost, that His God would raise Him. Wow, and there's more coming to that, but it is amazing nor allow my faithfulness to fill. My covenant I will not break, even when He had to fulfill that prophecy from the scripture. Yes, strike the shepherd. Yes, that's amazing. My covenant will not break nor alter the word that's gone out of my lips.

What power, what trust in every word that proceeds from God. Go to Psalm 20:7. He strengthens us from me to three. Wow, okay. Psalm 20:7. I'll read out of the New King James and then the ESV just to hear it. says, some trust in chariots, some in horses, but we will remember the name of the Lord our God. Yes? Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we will remember. That's covenant terms right there. Yes? We will remember. We know in whom we believe, yes? The name of the Lord our God. In ESV it said, some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the Lord our God.

He's faithful and true. He is faithful and true. And I'm going to ask for all of you to go to the Father privately on your own and just be honest and say, okay, I'm receiving this word. Hear it a few times. Okay, search me and know me. Where am I not trusting you? Where have I compromised? Where maybe I once did, but now I'm not. Where is my walk? Formidable trust. I mean, He's back in that word. Like, this is just too strong, okay? Too strong. This is God strong. And He's making us individually and corporately strong in Him so it's unmovable that our trust is in God.

Go there with Him. Be honest. Find the lies and just listen. They'll be condemned, but lean into, repent where needed. Exchange our lack of trust and our weakness and maybe we're trying to do things in our own strength. Or past experiences, I've been there, done that. I prayed once it didn't happen. Unbelief, doubt, whatever it may be, but trust is growing and He is releasing that impartation to us. And then go there with Him and we'll continue. So let's stand up and pray. What a glorious morning in His house. Thank God for healing you, sister. Thank God for healing all who are listening online and ourselves.

We thank you for His presence, yes? So Father God, we honor you, love you, thank you for the testimony of Jesus. And we put our trust in you, Lord, and we hear what you're saying. You have given us covenant. You have given us the authority and power to believe and agree just two or three. It shall be done by my Father. Thank you for rooting us and deepening us in the one that you know perfectly, Jesus. And thank you, great Holy Ghost, for removing every veil, every limit. Remove up everything that has hindered your trust in us. We thank you for imparting fresh trust, formidable trust in us today. In Jesus' name, amen. Good? All right. If you need prayer, come on up. Otherwise, God bless you guys. Have a great night.
