

God is Great

Sermon Transcript – September 20, 2026

All righty. God is great. So I just want to pray this prayer here I have on my paper real quick. Lord Jesus, set Your standard high in our midst. Be glorified and high and lifted up in our hearts. Lord, we love You without limits.

Your love never fails. You love above and beyond. all that we ask, think, or imagine. Your goodness shall be manifested in the land of the living, and there is victory today and forever in Jesus Christ our King. Amen.

Amen. Praise the Lord. God is great. The cry of the church, I started this last week, is, Lord, come without measure. Lord, come without measure. Go to Ephesians 3:8. He has set His standard high for us individually and corporately and globally for His house, for the bride.

Hallelujah. Ephesians 3:8, “it says to me, who am less than least of all the saints, this grace was given that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. We spoke on the unsearchable riches of Christ, the endless treasures available in Christ. The boundless riches of Christ. the incalculable riches of Christ, the unfathomable riches of Christ, the incomprehensible riches of Christ, that spiritual wealth which no one can fully understand. And when we see Him face to face, when we see Him as He is, we will say, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty.

Amen? who is and was and is to come. We are now, by the grace of god-given a window of opportunity to encounter that God is great and His Son is great and the Holy Ghost is faithful and true. We have been given a time to be able to have understanding. Lord, come without measure, personally and corporately and as the body of Christ from the beginning to the very end. Amen? I would preach the unsearchable riches of Christ.

He is parting to us and parting to us and speaking to us of the unsearchable riches of Christ. Hear it. Endless treasures available in Christ. There is no limit. He comes without measure. There is no limit. He's not going to tell you, You have enough encounter of Me.

You read the Bible enough. You were baptized and saved when you were 12, that's good with Me. He is always pursuing us, always bringing revelation to us, always pouring out His Spirit to us. God causes the growth. I can't do that. You cannot do that. God Almighty, the Father of glory, causes the growth.

He is always encouraging us in His Son, the unsearchable riches of Christ, the Anointed One and His anointing. the endless treasures available to them in Christ. It's for us, beloved. He is all in all. He has it all. And as we come in, more treasure to Him.

Yes? As we come home, more treasure to Him. More jewels on Him. More glory placed on Him because of His sacrifice. The incalculable riches of Christ. You can't add it up. He gives the Spirit without measure.

The unfathomable riches of Christ, incomprehensible riches, that spiritual wealth that nobody can fully understand until we see Him face to face. And then I believe we'll have all eternity and some kind of supernatural ability, right, to continue to behold Him in His glory. It is praise without end. It is glory without end. It is eternal in the heavens forever.

We have eternal life. And it starts today. Go back to John 3:31–36. The unsearchable riches of Christ. We want the Lord's standard to be lifted high in our hearts. We want His ways lifted high. We want His ways, His life, exalted in our hearts because He loves without limits.

He's not holding back. He's not holding back. He's not holding back. He gave His all so we could come fully in. We're the ones that get to go up, amen? “31, it says, He who comes from above is above all. He who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth.

He who comes from heaven is above all. And what He has seen and heard, that He testifies. And no one receives His testimony. He who has received His testimony has certified that God is true. For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God. For God does not give the Spirit by measure. For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God.

For God does not give the Spirit by measure. He gives the Spirit without limit, fully, generously, and boundlessly. 35. The Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hand. And he who believes in the Son has everlasting life. And he who does not believe in the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him.”

Amen. Thank God for the grace of God. Thank God for His mercy and His love towards us. Hallelujah. Now go to Matthew 1:18–25.

God is great. The unsearchable riches of Christ.” All you have to do is ask Him, give me revelation of the unsearchable riches in Christ. Give me supernatural knowledge. impart to my heart. Show me, teach me, I yield to You. That's what it looks like versus just having to go to church and so forth and so on.

It is life with God and there's no end. I love that. Matthew 1, verse 18, “it says, now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows, and His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph before they came together. she was found with child of Holy Spirit. Verse 19. Then Joseph, her husband, being a just man and not wanting to make her a public example, was minded to put her away secretly. Verse 20, but while he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take to you Mary your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

And she will bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name Jesus, for He shall save His people from their sins. 22. So all this was done, that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, Behold, the virgin shall be with child and bear a son, and they shall call His name Immanuel, which is translated God with us. Then Joseph, being aroused from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took to him his wife, and did not know her until she had brought forth her firstborn son. and he called His name Jesus.”

Hallelujah. Emmanuel, God with us. And when He commands us that we, church, would know the unsearchable riches of Christ, that makes sense if God is with us. If God is in us, yes? Because Jesus came to save us from our sins that separated us from God, we would never be with God ever if it had not been for Him.

Amen? John 3:34–35 (ESV). I just want to read this again. 34 and 35. He will save His people from their sins. “For He whom God has sent utters the words of God. For He gives the Spirit without measure, and the Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hand.”

God the Father has not held back from Jesus Christ. God the Father has given Him all, and Jesus Christ has given back to the Father all of His trust, all of His obedience. all of His willingness. He yielded 100 zillion percent. Yes, He said yes and amen. Not My will, but Your will be done, correct? So God is always working for us.

He's always working for us, always, even in your lowest moment. God is always working for us. He loves us. So the command is go high with God, yes? Go high with God. Stay near to the great Comforter, the Holy Ghost, yes? and the healing will flow.

Holy Spirit, the nearness of God is our good and Holy Ghost is in us. He said, I will be with you and I will be in you. And He will not leave us, fail us for our sake because the Comforter is with us. Stay near to the great Comforter and we will begin and continue to receive the riches of the glory in Christ. We will continue to come without measure. We will say, come, Lord, without measure, because we come without a limit on God. We are the worst block God has, right?

And so we open up our heart, our soul, mind, will, spirit. We open ourselves up to the living God without measure. Don't say, God, okay, I'll let You come this far, but that's about all I want of You. We, because He did that for us. Now we have an anointing to say, Here I am, Lord. Not just send me, but here I am, Lord. Reveal the unsearchable riches of Christ to me.

You hear it? Here I am, Lord. Don't put a boundary around yourself. Holy, right? Just say, Come, Lord Jesus, yes? Great Comforter, here I am. He will minister, let the healing flow.

Faith promises, faith pledges, faith brings results. And when we put our faith in what His Word says, I mean, Jesus carried the words of life. He spoke the words of life. He only spoke the Word of God. He is the Word of God, yes, manifested. And when we put all of our hope and trust in Him, He's always coming. And faith promises, faith pledges, faith will bring results.

Faith will always bring results. James 2:26 says, "For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also." Faith will bring results. Say amen. Look at Job.

Oh, no. Job 22. Don't worry, it's a good word. Job 22:12 (NASB 1995). Hallelujah. God is so great. 12, out of the New American, it says this.

"God is so great. higher than the heavens, higher than the farthest stars." One man's perception of God, right? And that same God is the one that seems unreachable, came down to a woman on the planet, and the Son of God was conceived within her womb. Talk about the unsearchable riches of God in Christ. John 3:16 says God so loved the world, right, that He gave and sent His only begotten Son, that if we believe in Him and make Him Lord and Master, yes?

Wow, there you go. We are safe forever. God is so great. He is higher than the heavens, higher than the farthest stars. And yet God would choose to come to us generation to generation to generation to generation. I don't know, but the glory is increasing.

It's not decreasing. It can't because God's kingdom is one of increase. That's what the Scripture says. People can decrease and leave Him, right? But God's glory is only increasing. God is so great. This man saw, he saw, this guy saw a revelation of God is so great, higher than the heavens.

It goes above mankind and our problems, yes, to bring us into the unsearchable riches of Christ, the endless treasures available in Christ, the boundless riches. Can't count them, right, of what God has planned for those who love Him. So praise and worship is going to rise in our heart to our great God and Savior. Look at Psalm 95. This causes us to worship. And worship is a part of our lifestyle every day, correct? And you know what it looks like at the stoplight.

You always know who the believers are because they're over there just singing, right? Yeah, the other ones are still singing too with their jam, but I'm just saying We are always praising and worshiping the Lord, even our most difficult times. Psalm 95:1-7. Hallelujah. "Oh, come, let us sing unto the Lord. Let us shout joyfully to the rock of our salvation. Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving.

Let us shout joyfully to Him with Psalms. For the Lord is the great God, and the great King above all the gods. In His hand are the deep places of the earth. The heights of the hills are His also. The sea is His because He made it. His hands formed the dry land. Oh come, let us worship and bow down.

Let us kneel before the Lord our Maker, for He is God. We are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand.” Hallelujah. Come, let us sing unto the Lord, for the Lord is great. He's the great King over all gods. This is our inheritance. This is the gift of God-given to us to know God forever and ever and ever.

Amen. Hallelujah. And you see just overflows of everything around Him in our creation, on our planet, in our city, in our region, to glorify God for all things. Yes? Even the earth. Even the earth is praising Him. God makes wisdom known to those who He calls.

Go to Jeremiah 9:23–24, one of my favorite passages. God makes His wisdom known to those He calls. Remember? Because He gives a spirit without measure. He is a spirit without measure. Hallelujah. God makes His wisdom known to those He calls.

And that may be a whole lifetime, right? Hallelujah. 23. It says, “Thus says the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom. Let not the mighty man glory in his might. Nor let the rich man glory in his riches, but let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the Lord, exercising lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth.” Remember Psalm 46:10: “Be still and know that I am the Lord.

“I will be exalted in the nations, and I will be exalted in the earth.” Hallelujah. Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom. Let not the mighty man glory in all his might. Don't let the rich man glory in his riches, but let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the Lord. This is the great God, the God without limit to know the unsearchable riches in Him.

Yes? What glory? He exercises lovingkindness, judgment and righteousness in the earth, for in these I delight, says the Lord. Doesn't that make you feel strong in Him and comforted by our God? Wisdom is nothing if it's not acted upon. Wisdom is vindicated by her works.

Matthew 11:19 says, “Wisdom is shown to be right by its results.” “Wisdom is proved right by her deeds.” Yes, and amen. Wisdom is nothing if we don't act on it and obey it and follow it. Wisdom is vindicated by her works.

Wisdom is always right. Go to John 6:27–40. God makes His wisdom known to those He calls, and that's given in the unsearchable riches of the glory in Christ. It's always far above and beyond what you can hope, think, or imagine out there, yes, makes your flesh tremble. He says, follow Me.

Amen. John 6. Now, I just kind of took some from, please read all of John 6. It's like thumbs up, right? But John 6:27–40, “do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to everlasting life. which the Son of Man will give you because God the Father has set His seal on Him.” 28, Then they said to Him, well, what shall we do that we may work the works of God?

And Jesus answered and said to them, “this is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent.” Now go down to verse 37, that we would believe in the one He sent. Verse 37, “All that the Father gives Me, will come to Me. What? All that the Father gives Me will come to Me. I'll say it again. All that the Father gives Me will come to Me.

And the one who comes to Me, I will by no means cast out. What a promise. What a promise. All that the Father gives Me. You see, this is the sovereignty of God. Yes? All that the Father gives Me will come to Me.

What faith. Jesus had faith in the Father. That is a declaration. Amen. All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast out.” “38 For I have come down from heaven not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me. And this is the will of the Father who sent Me, that of all that He has given Me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day. Verse 40: And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life.

And I will raise him up on the last day.” Say resurrection. Hallelujah. You see, there's no limit in God to know the unsearchable riches in Christ. It is eternal, beloved. And as much as we get revelation in this life, wisdom shall be vindicated by her work.

Wisdom shall be vindicated. The wisdom of God was sent. The wisdom of God was sent to send His Son to save us from our sins. And He did it. The wisdom of God was sent, and He is fulfilling every word.

Amen. This is the will. Everybody who sees His Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life. I will raise him up in the last day. Go to Psalm 36:5–12, glory to God. These words are truth. Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life.

Of course we believe Him. And oh God, when He comes to another area of your heart, you're like, yes Lord, and you step in closer. Not a way, right? Wisdom acts, step closer. Let Him move, yeah? Let Him reveal. Psalm 36, is that what I said?

Let's look at verse 5. I'll close with this. Well, kind of, yeah. Psalm 36:5–12. And it says, “Your mercy, O Lord, is in the heavens. Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds. Your righteousness is like the great mountains.

Your judgments are a great deep. O Lord, You preserve man and beast. How precious is Your lovingkindness, O God! Therefore, the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Your wings. They're abundantly satisfied with the fullness of Your house, and You give them drink from the river of Your pleasures. For with You is the fountain of life, and in Your light we see light. Verse 10, oh, Continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You, and Your righteousness to the upright in heart.

Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked drive me away. There the workers of iniquity have fallen, and they have been cast down and are not able to rise.” He said, go high with God. Right? Go high with God. The wicked only decrease. Go high with God to know the unsearchable riches in Christ.

There is no limit, beloved. And we will honor the King. And we will honor His Shekinah glory. And may Lord Jesus be glorified in all. And may Holy Spirit ignite a fresh passion in the hearts of His family. And may the love of God really be revealed in the name of Jesus.

Amen? I just want to pray over this word. Father, we thank You. We receive Your heart this morning. We love You, Lord. And we agree with what the Spirit is saying to us today.

We receive it. And I pray You'll continue to impart it to us. Wow. And that we will be changed even today from glory to glory as we stand amazed at Your goodness, God, in the land that we're dwelling in. Seal it on our hearts, Jesus. Amen.
