

Come Without Measure

September 3rd, 2026

Go ahead, Dow. Praise the Lord. Let me just pray over the word that our hearts will hear what the Spirit's saying. Father, we just thank You that You are so faithful. You are the Word of God. And we just have ears to hear.

Our heart opens up. Our mind receives the encouragement, the word, the direction You give us. And thank You for blessing this word to all who hear it, Lord. And thank You for igniting fresh fire and bringing revelation and a stirring in our hearts as never before. In Jesus' name, amen. Amen.

All right. So we entitled this Come Lord Without Measure. Come Lord Without Measure. If you go to Acts chapter 2, Come Lord Without Measure. Acts chapter 2, we're going to read verse 1 through 4. It says, When the day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were seated.

Then there appeared to them divided tongues as a fire and one set upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance. Amen. We know this is a scripture, a testimony of when after Jesus' death, burial, resurrection, and ascension, that He called all of His followers, His disciples, to wait upon Him until such a time that the Spirit was poured out at Father God's divine timing. This is a brief testimony on that day of Pentecost of one accord gathering together, worshipping God, waiting upon the Lord. There came suddenly, say suddenly, Suddenly there came a sound from heaven.

So they heard the sound, they heard the roar as a mighty, rushing, mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. They looked into that divided tongues of fire literally set upon their heads, and they were literally baptized, immersed into, and filled to overflowing with Holy Spirit. This was something that has been prophesied And God fulfilled it on the right day, at the right moment, in the right time, for the right purpose. And the Lord came without measure. He came and He poured Himself out. The Spirit was poured out so much that it launched the church.

Do you understand? That the Spirit of the living God was launched, poured out upon the church so that He could bring the fullness to the body of Christ. Jesus Christ was filled with Holy Ghost. The fullness of the Spirit rested upon Him. They were all born again when He breathed on them. Yes, you must be born again.

And now gathered together waiting upon Him after He had taught them many marvelous things concerning the kingdom, it says, for 40 days. Then the Spirit came, you understand, at the appointed time. And He came without measure. He came in fullness. And oh, you know, we watched some movies that try to replicate this, but I'm just saying, you know, unless you were there, we really didn't know, but oh my God, glory, glory, glory. Glory, glory, glory, where the Holy Ghost came upon these mighty followers of Christ to launch upon the church from that day forward and He has not stopped pouring out His Spirit upon His bride.

Amen? We are still be being filled with the Spirit. Amen. Hallelujah. Lord Jesus, set Your standard high in our midst. That is a cry of our hearts. Yes? He comes without measure.

So Lord Jesus, set Your standard high in our midst. That's personal and that's corporate. That's for your family, yes? Lord Jesus, set Your standard high. Raise Your standard, raise, lift Yourself up high upon us, yes? Be glorified and high and lifted in our hearts. We want God to be glorified and high and lifted in our hearts.

Now, we can do this many ways. We believe it by faith. We give Him our praise. That's why we worship. We praise. We sing to the Lord all week long.

Lord, be glorified in my heart. Be high and lifted up in my heart. It starts here in our heart. This is this personal love relationship. It's personal intimacy with your God of high praise, worship, adoration, who He is, declaring who He is. That is our lifestyle.

As soon as you're born again, you don't just worship and praise Him when you come to church. Right? We have the privilege and the honor that this is our lifestyle. Say lifestyle. So be glorified and high and lifted up in our hearts, Lord. Come, Lord, without measure.

Lord, you love without limits, because see, His word says that His love never fails. Lord loves without limits. He does not limit His love. He's not going to hold back His love. He won't do it. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, yes, that whoever believes in Him would not perish, but have everlasting life.

How much does God love? For God so loved us, the world, He gave, He sent. He opened up His heart and allowed His heart to come to save us, Jesus Christ, yes, crucified for our sin, yes, to take it away, but to bring love to our hearts and to bring the Spirit without measure, to know God intimately as He does. It wasn't just so you could go to church. We have entered the kingdom of heaven. You must be born again.

We have entered the kingdom of heaven. Oh my God, that's glorious. Yes, that is glorious. And one day we will be in heaven. Yes, and when our loved ones go on to be with the Lord, that is high praise to God for our great salvation because we know that they are face to face with Christ now. Happy, happy, happy, happy, healed and perfect.

Hallelujah. That is our hope. Yes, so for the joy set before us, we endure, we suffer, but the glory of God is to be with Him forever. And now on the earth, oh come, Lord, without measure. He wants that heart that's open. He wants that heart that's expected.

He wants a heart that loves Him, sold out to Him, says, yes, Lord. Amen. Lord Jesus, set your standard high in our hearts, in our midst. That's a high standard, and His Word is it, amen. Be glorified, lifted high in our hearts. And when we gather together, wow, now just think of the whole wide world worshipping God right now.

Okay, I'm just saying that's big news. Okay, Lord, You love without limits. Your love never fails. You love above and beyond everything we could ask, think, or imagine. So He's always going to do more than what you thought. He's always going to love you more.

He's always going to have grace more. Yes, He's going to forgive more. He's going to heal more. He's going to deliver more. He's going to meet you where you're at more. He was glorified yesterday, but He's going to be more glorified today because He adores us.

He is faithful. He is true. He is not a man that He would like. Yes, so I stand here as a witness boldly proclaiming His words as we lift Him high up. Yes, as we proclaim His goodness, He is in our midst and being glorified. He comes without measure.

Wow, maybe one day we'll get to hear everyone's stories in the upper room of what it was really like. What it was really like. What it was really like, the prophets had fire on them. Yes, the sons of Israel saw, oh my God, the glory of God manifests in their presence, fire from heaven. They were fed in the wilderness, you know, supernaturally. Sons and wonders from Genesis 1 all the way to the end. He comes without measure.

He comes and He comes and He comes. He's not withholding. He withholds no good thing from us. Come, Lord, without measure. I'm expecting the Spirit. I'm expecting goodness.

I'm expecting more. I'm expecting the fullness. Did I say that already? I'm expecting more. I'm expecting Him. My eyes are open to see Him.

My ears have been awakened to hear Him. My heart responds to His heartbeat. When you're in love with someone, that heart will jump a beat or two. When He draws near, He awakens, He brings us back to life. Amen. This is the relationship that we've been called to have with Jesus.

He will never leave us. He will never fail us. He will never forsake us. Amen. So now go to Ephesians chapter 3. Thank you, Lord. Come without measure.

Ephesians 3 verse 8. And we're going to read this in different translations as I go through this one part. Ephesians 3 verse 8. It says, to me, who am less than the least of all the saints, this is Paul talking, to me who am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given that I should preach Christ among the Gentiles, the unsearchable riches of Christ. To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given Grace is supernatural, abundant blessing from God. Yes, an empowerment that only comes from God.

This grace was given that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, the unsearchable riches of Christ, the unsearchable riches of Christ, the New Living, says, though I am least deserving of all God's people, He graciously gave me the privilege of telling the Gentiles about the endless treasures available to them in Christ, of the endless treasures available to them in Christ, the unsearchable riches of Christ. The NIV says, although I'm less than the least of all the Lord's people, This grace was given to me to preach to the Gentiles the boundless riches of Christ. Do you hear lack? No, I hear abundance. The boundless riches of Christ, the CSB.

So this grace was given to me, the least of all the saints, to proclaim to the Gentiles the incalculable riches of Christ. You can't add it up, can you? MASB says, To me, the very least of all saints, this grace was given to preach to the Gentiles the unfathomable riches of Christ. Are y'all getting this? The Amplified said, To me, though I am the very least of all the saints, God's people, this grace which is undeserved was graciously given to proclaim to the Gentiles the good news of the incomprehensible riches of Christ, that spiritual wealth which no one can really fully understand. Eye has not seen, ear has not heard, having entered into the heart of man all that God has planned for those who love Him, the above and beyond goodness and the glory of our God and of Jesus and of the Holy Ghost and His kingdom.

Amen. Come, Lord, without measure, the unsearchable riches of Christ, all is found in Christ Jesus. And if you've been born again from above, this is you. This is who we are and with. This is our inheritance. This is our inheritance.

And it starts today. Come, Lord, without measure. He is not holding back. God is not restraining from you. He is like, well, no, I don't think they need that. If you're hungry, eat.

If you want Him, ask. Jesus said, ask, seek, knock. It'll be given. Door's open. Come running, baby, because, Lord, You're coming without measure. He is not holding back from us.

He has given us the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Isn't that powerful? On this flesh, that we could have the unsearchable riches of Christ, that we would know the endless treasures available to us in Christ. that we would know the boundless riches in Christ, that we would know these things. They're unfathomable. It's so amazing.

It's such good news. It is spiritual wealth. No human can comprehend it. is discerned by the Spirit. And He poured out His Spirit. He already did it.

He already did it. And He's be being filled. He's be being poured out upon every soul when it's time. And you come into the understanding of the fullness of the Holy Ghost and fire. You're like, whoa, there's more.

Then you went from here to off the charts. And then you encounter Him again. You got baptized the Holy Ghost and fire. Oh, again, and there was more fire. Then He came again, and He comes again, and He comes again. And He will not stop coming.

Come, Lord, without measure. How much do you want? Yeah, it's like coming to Thanksgiving. You know what feasts are like at Thanksgiving House? We've got 15,000 pies, and you think you have to have one of each. You can barely eat one because the meal is just right, but yet you keep eating.

You keep going back. Am I lying, or is this true? I keep going back. I keep going back. More quip, more quip. I keep going back, and we're miserable all day long, but we partook.

We did not hold back. Why? Because there was a table spread out for us. You want to hurt grandma's feelings, right? Well, He's feasting with us, yes, beloved.

Now, even now, before we go see Him in heaven, He calls us to the table. The Lord, my God, there's plenty. It's a table of plenty. Come, Lord, without measure. Look at John chapter 3, verse 27. I'm reading that out of the New Living.

the boundless riches of Christ, the unsearchable riches of Christ, the endless treasures available to us. Because when we go to heaven, dude, it's over. We're all there. We're going to be, we're in, right? It's this planet that we need to encounter this, right? Because then we just step over right into glory.

What if we were all so full of glory and so full of revelation, knowledge of it, maybe it was really just no big deal? Because you've been with Him for so long. Yes? You've been walking with Him for so long, it's just, come on in. Truth? That's true. That's Bible.

John 3.27, y'all good? It says, John replied, no one can receive anything unless God gives it from heaven. John replied, no one can receive anything unless God gives it from heaven. And the apostle Paul said, I'm the least of all the saints, and this grace was given. Where'd it come from?

Heaven. To preach the unsearchable riches of Christ. No one can receive anything unless God gives it from heaven. Now look at John 3, verse 31 through 36 out of the New King James. 31, He Who comes from above is above all. He who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth.

He Who comes from heaven is above all. And what He has seen and heard, that He testifies, and no one receives His testimony. Verse 33, He who has received His testimony has certified that God is true. For He Whom God has sent speaks the words of God. For God does not give the Spirit by measure. Wow.

He gives the Spirit without limit, fully, generously, and boundlessly. For He Whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure. Come, Lord, without measure. You hear that? Open door. Open Heaven.

Gates are open. Heaven's flooding in. Heaven is here. Heaven is now. Heaven is coming in. Every day, that's the lifestyle of the believer.

You wake up in the morning, you go to sleep at night, you know that you are in Him. You didn't step out to go to sleep and step back in the morning, right? We're in Him at all times. Christ in me, the hope of glory, yes. And the unsearchable riches of Christ are being revealed to us day and night, night and day, intimately. Every person is so different, but yet as the body of Christ, wow, that's glory.

He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure. He gives the Spirit without limit, fully, generously, and boundlessly. That's good, glorious news. Wow. And Jesus was so excited because, oh, when I go, He's going to come. That He would go through that suffering to deal with hell and the devil and our sin and humanity's separation from God by choice and that He would be so eager to go through that so that the Spirit of truth would come.

Read John 13 through 17. That's His passion, beloved. It's His passion. And He parts that to the bride. He parts that passion to the bride. Why are you so passionate?

Because He gave me the Spirit without measure. Wow. He gives the Spirit without limit, fully, generously, and boundlessly. The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand. Do you think that the Father withheld? No.

It says, The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand. The Father gave generously, without measure. He gave all things to Jesus Christ the Son, who is King of kings and Lord of lords. Oh my God, how glorious! And He will reign forever and ever. Amen.

All things belong to Christ. Hallelujah! Verse 36, He who believes in Me, the Son has everlasting life. He who believes in the Son has everlasting life. Wow. That's good news.

That's good news that He would bring us out of this depravity into eternal life with Him. Don't let it ever be attract. If you believe in your heart, confess with your mouth, believe Jesus is Lord and you'll be saved and you'll have eternal life. You understand? This is our life. This is our inheritance.

The unsearchable riches of Christ, eternal life starts now. As soon as you're born again, you've entered in. The flesh one day is going to catch up. Amen? Hallelujah. The Father loves the Son, has given all things into His hand. He believes, who he believes is that has everlasting life. He who does not believe the Son shall not see life.

But the wrath of God abides on him. These are words from, oh my God, yes. But the wrath of God is on those who have not received the Lord without measure. Truth. It's better to be saved, yes? And thus the charge and the call and the anointing on the body of Christ to go into all the world and preach this glorious gospel so that all can come to the saving knowledge of Jesus.

And that's all the areas of our influence and divine opportunities, yes. However God provides, it's a day-to-day lifestyle. And when you share good news, and they share good news, and then they share good news, and here we are, right? Wow. The Father loves His Son, has given all things into His hand. 16.

This is out of Amplified, Come, Lord, without measure. that I would know the unsearchable riches of Christ, the endless treasures available. Wow. The boundless riches, the incalculable riches, unfathomable riches, good news of a spiritual wealth that I'm trying to understand, yeah? 16 Amplified, it says this, For out of His fullness, the superabundance of His grace and truth, We have all received grace upon grace, spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing, favor upon favor, gift heaped upon gift. That's the truth.

That's the unsearchable riches of Christ that he's talking about. Come, Lord, without measure, pour out Your Spirit, bring revelation to my soul, give me understanding, enlighten my understanding, open my ears, draw me near, fill me, and then I will fill my mouth and heart with what Your Word says. When you put the Word of God in your mouth, you will encounter God. When you follow and obey God's Word, you will encounter God. Yes? You can't just go off somebody telling you about it.

You got to open the Word, and breath and life will come into your being. Yes? Out of His fullness, superabundance of His grace and truth, we have all received grace upon grace. Grace upon grace. Do you see how the kingdom is building? Do you see the increase?

Do you see the unsearchable riches? Do you see the measure is measured and measured and measured and measured? You're like, Lord, I can't take any more. I'm busting out the seams. No, you say, more, Lord. And that's one of our sayings here.

More, Lord. Yes, because that's His desire. If you know that's His desire, oh, that changes everything because you don't block Him out, right? Wow, there's the fear of the Lord and humility. And then you receive. His grace and truth, grace upon grace, spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing, favor upon favor, gift heaped upon gift.

Gift heaped upon gift. Endless supply. God never runs out. Holy Ghost is not going to tell you that's enough. That's all the revelation you need of God. Got your degree, right?

You're close to heaven. You're close to heaven. That's all you get, right? You're so close to heaven, I'm not going to give you anything else. She's about to step over. That's all.

Your time's up, sister. No, He will pour out His Spirit. How do I know? He even raised the dead. He even raised the dead. He only did that because of the glory that's in Him, so that all would know the Lord. Truth?

Proverbs 15:6, Amplified. Come, Lord, without measure. Set Your standard high in our midst. and be glorified in our hearts. No limits. No one's holding You back. Amen? 6, it says, Great and priceless treasure is in the house of the consistently righteous one who seeks godly instruction and grows in wisdom.

But trouble is in the income of the wicked one who rejects the laws of God. Great and priceless treasure is in the house of the consistently righteous one who seeks godly instruction and grows in wisdom. But trouble is in the income of the wicked one who rejects the laws of God. That's truth. That's truth. Well said.

Go to John chapter 5, verse 17. I'm going to read this out of CSB if you have it. 17 through 30. My little subtitle here says, Honoring the Father and the Son. Jesus responded to them. He said, My Father is still working, and I'm working also.

This is why the Jews began trying all the more to kill Him, not only because He was breaking the Sabbath, but that He was calling God His own Father, making Himself equal to God. God His own Father, making Himself equal to God. Jesus replied, Truly I tell you, the Son is not able to do anything of His own. but only what He sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, the Son likewise does these things. Say, As one.

As one. Verse 20, For the Father loves the Son. Here it is. The Father loves the Son and shows Him everything He is doing. As He is, so are we in this world. You understand this?

The Father is not holding back from Jesus. He did not hold back. Jesus had been with them before the beginning of the beginning. He is. Amen? And He did not withhold from His Son who became a man on the planet to save us and bring us into that inheritance.

That's glorious. The Father loves the Son and shows Him everything He's doing, and He will show Him greater works than these so that you will be amazed. 21. And just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son also gives life to whom He wants. Wow. I am the resurrection and the life, He said.

He believes in Me, oh, you're never going to die and perish. Yes. You're going to have eternal life with Me forever. Verse 22. The Father, in fact, judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son.

so that all people may honor the Son just as they honor the Father, and anyone who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent them. You hear it? That goes back to those who had a choice not to believe in the Lord Jesus, yes? To all those who did not, they're appointed to wrath. But to those who believe on the Son will have life and life more abundant. The unsearchable riches of Christ, the endless treasures available to us, the boundless riches of Christ, the incalculable riches of Christ, the unfathomable riches of Christ, the spiritual wealth that no one can even understand.

You can't even comprehend so much goodness. Grace and mercy was seen in the face of Christ. This is our Lord. He's not holding back. Door is open. Amen.

24, I think that's where I am. Truly, I tell you, anyone who hears My Word and believes Him who sent Me has eternal life and will not come under judgment, but has passed from death to life. And it starts today, doesn't it? Even though we haven't gone over, eternal life starts today. Wow, thank you, Lord. Verse 25, Truly I tell you, an hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

Amen. For just as the Father has life in Himself, so also He has granted to the Son to have life in Himself. Me and the Father are one. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, one. Amen. Life and life more abundant.

Eternal life, He is. Hallelujah. He is granted to the Son to have life in Himself. Verse 27, He has granted Him the right to pass judgment because He's the Son of Man. Oh, yes, Lord. 28.

Do not be amazed at this, because a time is coming when all who are in the graves will hear His voice and come out. Those who have done good things to the resurrection of life, but those who have done wicked things to the resurrection of condemnation. 30. I can do nothing of My own. I judge only as I hear, and My judgment is just. because I do not seek My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me.

There it is, Father, not my will, but Your will be done. Hear it? What surrender, what trust, what amazing God we have, and that the Father and the Son are in spirit, are in total agreement, and they come without measure. He gives Him assignments. He gives them the right judgments. They know, they know exactly the right thing to do.

They are always just, always righteous, always perfect in all their ways. All judgments that come from the throne of God are perfect, yes? Not like humans, okay? Everything that comes from the throne of grace is perfect, right, just, pure, holy, yes? And He will give those judgments without measure, amen? One day, all who believe in Him will be resurrected to life.

And those who did not believe will be resurrected one day only to see eternal damnation. Yes? Today is a day of salvation, Jesus said. Hallelujah. The river of God is the center of His will. Just think of a river.

It's flowing. And I don't know, probably shouldn't look at Texas rivers, but normally, rivers are flowing, okay? We're praying for that rain. Rivers flow, right? A pond is not what I'm talking about. Rivers flow.

Say, rivers flow. And the river of God is the center as well. He is always moving. Psalm 46.4, New Living says, there is a river whose streams may glad the city of God, the holy dwelling places of the Most High. There is a river, yes?

Say, the Lord God Almighty. And the river of God is full and teeming with life. The river of God carries us into His life, how deep, how wide, and it's always moving. That's why when we get born again, we just came in. And then the river's carrying us, yes? The river of life.

And when we get baptized and immersed in the Holy Ghost in fire, we just went through some rapids, okay? You want to hear a funny story, because I can? It has nothing to do with this, but it's coming to me, so I thought I'd share and make you laugh. A long time ago, I forgot when it was, but my oldest son was in high school, probably junior. Okay, and we were on the Snake River. What's that park up north? Yes, we were on the Snake River. Okay, and so we're there, and I'm not a real big water person, okay, but everybody else in my family are good swimmers.

Praise the Lord. Anyway, so we're in the raft. And the little dude who's instructing us how to stay in the raft and obey the rules-- life jackets on, telling us what we're not supposed to do, and what it's going to look like. So you can get all different kinds of measures of rapids. So you can do a floaty thing, smooth thing, a little ripply thing. You do a little bit more, and you can do the big stuff. We weren't in the big, big stuff, but we're in bigger for brandy stuff.

So that baby's rolling, all right? And we're all in. And so the dude tells me, he tells us, whatever happens if someone falls overboard, do not quit paddling. I'm like, I'm looking at you, I'm like, what did I get myself into? What do you mean if somebody falls overboard? It's probably going to be me, you know?

Just keep paddling. Just keep swimming. Just keep swimming. Is that Nemo? I don't know.

But it's just what it looks like. We're in this raft. We're in it. And I'm all in, OK? And you don't have an option. You paddle.

OK, we're doing the deal. We're all in there. OK? Then we hit a big one. OK, it didn't hit me. It hit my oldest son, who is pretty muscular and strong and six foot one, two, went over into the river.

I'm like, help! I am paddling. And I am paddling because I remember he said, don't stop paddling. I hit him on the head once. I hit him on the head twice. He's trying to come up. He is trying.

But I am very, I am very obedient person. I am very submissive. I am still paddling because that man in the back told me, don't you stop paddling. So I'm here by the grace of God, an angel put his hand up on one of those rope things and somebody, he got up. And he's like, mom, why did you keep hitting me on the head? I couldn't see you, son.

So I cried. It was traumatic. I prayed through it. I went through deliverance on it already. But it was like, wow, right?

But I did it. I was on a river that was too big for me. This is a true story. Jess probably downstairs laughing. But to this day, we will still joke about that because I was obedient.

But it got swifter. It got harder, right? And all of a sudden, even the strongest was thrown off. You understand? And that's what that looks like. And so when he says the river of God is the center of His will, I'm just saying, do the math, right?

Do the math, because it looks like that way in life sometimes, doesn't it? You're in the center of His will, but baby, you are rolling. You may be on some waves that you have never been on before, but just keep paddling, right? There's a river whose streams may glide the city of God. He gives without measure. The river of God is full and teeming with life.

The river of God carries us into His life. There is purpose. Amen? Look at Hebrews 13, verse 20. Hallelujah.

Hebrews 13. I do recommend that for anybody who wants to travel that far. That was awesome. I would probably do it again. Hebrews 13, verse 20. New American. 20, it says, Now the God of peace, who brought up from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the eternal covenant, even Jesus our Lord, equip you in every good thing to do His will, working in us that which is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Now may the God of peace, who brought us up from the dead, the great shepherd of our sheep, through the blood of the eternal covenant, even Jesus our Lord, here it is, equip you in every good thing to do His will. That's what we're doing, to equip you in every good thing to do His will, working in us that which is pleasing in His sight, working in us for that which is pleasing in His sight. That's not my will, but Your will be done. He equips us in every good thing. It's the infathomable, unsearchable, endless treasures in Christ that He has freely given and bringing us into revelation of. Truth.

Equip you in every good thing to do His will, working in us that which is pleasing in His sight through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. The river of God is eternal life in the Son. Go to John 17, verse 3. There is a river whose streams make glad. There is a city whose river is making glad.

You understand? We are the house of the Lord. We are the kingdom of kings and priests. We are the bride of Jesus Christ. He is giving the Spirit and His presence without measure. He's not holding back.

If you seek Him, you will find Him. If that's not the truth, then I'm a liar because God's a liar because He said, ask and you will receive, seek and you will find, knock and the door will be opened. Truth to all who ask will receive. That's a promise from God, and I lay hold of it. I don't care what the devil says. Amen? We're believers of God, not him. Where am I?

John 17:3? Jesus said, And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ Whom You have sent. Goal. That's the goal. The river of God is eternal life in the Son. This is eternal life that we may know You, the only true God in Jesus Christ Whom You have sent.

Now we're going to wrap this up here at the end with Revelation 22, New Living. We have a glorious future, but Lord Jesus is here today. The Holy Ghost is here today and wants to pour out and bring us in more revelation of the abounding grace and goodness today. Revelation 22. You ready? It says, Then the angel showed me a river with the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and from the Lamb.

And it flowed down the center of the main street, and on each side of the river grew a tree of life, bearing 12 crops of fruit, with a fresh crop every month. The leaves were used for medicine to heal the nations. Verse 3, No longer will there be a curse upon anything, for the throne of God and of the Lamb will be there, and His servants will worship Him. Verse 4, And they will see His face, and His name will be written on their foreheads. And there will be no night there, no need for lamps or sun, for the Lord God will shine on them, and they will reign forever and ever. Verse 6, Then the angel said to me, 'Everything you have heard and seen is trustworthy and true.

This is the will of God, your sanctification. Amen. Verse 12, Look, I am coming soon. I am bringing My reward with Me to repay all the people according to their deeds. I am the Alpha and the Omega. I am the First and the Last.

I am the beginning and the end. Blessed are those who wash their robes. They will be permitted to enter through the gates of the city and eat the fruit from the tree of life. Outside the city are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idol worshippers, and all who love to live a lie. 16, I, Jesus, have sent My angel to give you this message before the churches. I am both the source of David and the heir to his throne.

I am the bright morning star. 17. And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. Let anyone who hears this say, Come. Let anyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who desires to drink freely from the water of life.

18, and I solemnly declare to everyone who hears the words of prophecy written in this book, if anyone adds anything to what's written here, God will add to that person the plagues described in this book. And if anyone removes any of the words from this book of prophecy, God's going to remove that person's share in the tree of life and in the holy city that are described in this book. 20, He who is the Faithful Witness to all these things says, yes, I am coming soon.
